Article (2)

Verification of Violations

The competent department shall be responsible for verifying the compliance of practitioners of the expert profession with the duties and obligations stipulated under the provisions of the Decree by Law and its Executive Regulation. For this purpose, it may request any documents and data it deems necessary and undertake the appropriate procedures to establish the commission of violating acts, provided that it shall submit a report thereon to the Committee to take the action it deems appropriate.

Imposition of Administrative Sanctions

1. Without prejudice to any procedures that may be undertaken in accordance with the provisions of the Decree by Law, the Committee may, where any practitioner of the expert profession commits any of the violations specified in the Schedule annexed to this Resolution, impose the fines set out opposite each violation, unless it decides to impose one of the following administrative sanctions:
  - a. Written warning
  - b. Administrative closure of the violating expert houses for a period not exceeding six (6) months, renewable once.

- c. Charging the violator with the expenses and costs of removing and remedying the damages resulting from the violation, where the violator fails to carry out such removal or remedy.
  - d. Revocation of the license.
2. The Committee may double the administrative fines in the event of repetition of the same violation within one year from the date of commission of the previous violation.

Article (4)

Grievance against Administrative Sanctions

1. The Committee shall notify the violator of the decision imposing the administrative sanction within fifteen (15) days from the date of its issuance, through the means approved by the Committee. The notification shall include a statement of the committed violation, the period required for its removal and rectification, and any other information determined by the Committee.
2. Any person against whom an administrative sanction decision has been issued may submit a written grievance to the Minister or their delegate, within thirty (30) days from the date of notification of the contested decision, provided that the grievance is reasoned and accompanied by all supporting documents.
3. The grievance shall be decided upon within thirty (30) days from the date of its submission, in accordance with the procedures applied by the Ministry. The lapse of this period without a decision on the application shall be deemed an implicit rejection of the grievance.

Article (5)

Amendment of Administrative Fines

The Cabinet shall have exclusive competence to make any amendments to the administrative fines set out in this Resolution, whether by addition, deletion, or modification.

Article (6)
